

I Recommend Peruna To All Sufferers Of Catarrh—

I Do Not Think I Ever Felt Much Better

Mr. William H. Hinchliffe, No. 20

Myrtle St., Beverly, Mass., writes: "I have taken four bottles of Peruna, and I can say that it has done me a great deal of good for catarrh of the head and throat. I recommend Peruna to all sufferers with catarrh. I do not think I ever felt much better. I am really surprised at the work I can do. I do not think too much praise can be said for Peruna."

Those who object to liquid medicines can procure Peruna Tablets.

Moonlight Schools.

The Kentucky Literacy Commission has placed Miss Alice Record of Pikeville College as County Agent of Pike county to organize moonlight schools in the county. This is essentially a war work. The moonlight schools taught by the day school teachers who are volunteer workers, aim to reach the men of draft age who cannot read or write and give them an opportunity to learn before they are called to camp. These schools also aim to teach the friends of soldiers so that they may write the boys and read their letters the boys send home from the battle front. Another aim of the moonlight school workers is to increase the regular day school attendance in our communities. During the weeks before August 19, the date for the opening of the moonlight schools, Miss Record will meet with teachers at various places to discuss methods of organization to obtain the best possible results in the ten weeks' drive. The quota for Pike county is 1000 people taught to read and write this year.

YATESVILLE.

All of our oil companies are very busy engaged and the oil business is on the boom.

The well drilled on the land of Mrs. W. T. Kane has just been shot, cleaned out and completed and a pump installed and put in operation and it is said by many of our oil men to be the best in the entire field. At this writing a well on the land of Thomas Haytan is nearing completion on which we hope to be able to report by the time of the next issue of the News. The machinery is now being set on the land of the widow Lackey and the drilling will start by the middle of the present week, and another well is to be drilled on the land of William Savage at once which will be an offset to the producing well recently completed on the land of Jesse Bennard.

It is with great regret that we have learned of the train calamity at Buchanan.

The corn prospects through this section are extra good at the present, in fact all of the crops through here are fairly good. The oats crop is excellent and the wheat was good, though a rather small acreage had been sowed. At this time our farmers are very busily engaged in the harvesting of their crops and everybody is doing laying by their corn.

We noticed Monday a great many teachers passing through from the Webbville section of country to the institute at your place.

Jay and Willard F. Short are doing an excellent job on the Yatesville section of our Louisa and Webbville pike, by hauling the slack from our mines and filling up all the mud holes for quite a distance toward Louisa.

An ice cream supper here on last Saturday night palmed out $42.50 which throws the Red Cross that much more to the good.

A mishap in our coal mine has caused a considerable set back in the work and our miners say they can't furnish any more coal for about ten or fifteen days.

Ben F. Diamond attended the funeral of Paul Diamond at Louisa Tuesday, who was one of the victims of the Buchanan wreck.

All of our farmers that have meadows have been very busy making hay for the last week or ten days, for which the weather has been excellent. The visits that have been made here for the last few days have been entirely too numerous for us to mention.

Country Greenhorn.

GLENHAYES, W. VA.

Sunday June 30 was a sad day for the young folks of Glenhayes and vicinity on account of the death of Dan L. Wallace, 17 year old son of Mrs. James Prust.

Toting Wallace was brakeman on a dinkey train at Chatteroy, W. Va., and in going over his trip Friday June 28 fell and was horribly mangled under the train of coal cars.

He died nine hours later in the hospital at Welch, W. Va.

Though so badly mangled, one arm being entirely torn away and both lower limbs crushed and a horrible scalp wound, Dan retained his reason to the very last and professed a hope in Christ and faced the future with perfect confidence, which has been a source of
